

The Interval at Long Now

An interesting bar, cafe, and entertainment venue

Stay Editor's Note

The Interval at Long Now is not your ordinary bar. It is also a cafe, with a beautiful dining area, surrounded by filled bookshelves and interesting mechanical objects. The bar is set up inside the former military campus Fort Mason.

Among the most interesting things to admire at The Interval at Long Now, Brian Eno's ambient painting is an ever-changing work of art, right behind the bar. The bar serves cocktails designed by Jennifer Colliau, fine coffee and teas, and snacks.
